Also, if you wish to continue to give your tithe and offerings regularly during this period of time in which we're not meeting at the Y, please feel free to mail your gift to Crossroads Church, P.O. From Pastor Tom

Good morning, Crossroads Family! It's great to be part of the Body of Christ and to know the Savior!

It has been a busy and unusual week for most of us! I pray that, in the midst of uncertainty, you have been able to see and experience the grace of the Lord!

We have much for which to be thankful today! I'm especially thankful for Heather and Julie who have done so much to get our Crossroads Facebook page up and running, and who began, at just the right time, live-streaming our Sunday sermons!

I'm grateful that we ordinarily have use of the gym and other rooms at the Y. Let's give thanks and pray for the team of people who serve us at the Y, and especially for Jeff Snyder who is making difficult decisions during the COVID-19 outbreak.

Let's make extra efforts to be in contact with each other during the week. A phone call, a text, or even an old-fashioned hand-written note of encouragement to someone can be a tremendous blessing. Some in our church have made themselves available to pray with you over the phone. I am also available at any time.

The Lord reigns! Let's look to Him this morning and every day in the coming week! May God bless our worship!
