Monday Night Bible Study

We're beginning a new Bible Study this Monday at 7 pm on Facebook Live. You're invited to join this opportunity to stay connected and to grow in the Lord!

Baptism.

We're hopeful that we can still have a baptism, as planned, on Sunday, April 5. If you're interested in baptism, please let Tom know! Thank you!

Crossroads Connection.

Our next Crossroads Connection (fellowship meal and conversation) is also tentatively scheduled for Sunday, April 5, immediately following worship.

Easter Breakfast & Worship.

The tentative plan for Easter is breakfast at 8:30, and worship at 10:00. Please be in prayer for God's special blessing on our celebration of the resurrection, in whatever form it takes! Thank you!

We recognize that during this slow-down period some in our church family may experience financial challenges. If you have a special need, please don't hesitate to be in touch with Cris, Dave, Shane, or Pastor Tom. Also, if you wish to continue to give your tithe and offerings regularly during this period of time in which we're not meeting at the Y, please feel free to mail your gift to Crossroads Church, P.O. Box 23, Nevada MO 64772. Thank you.

The Last Days of Jesus
Part 4 – The Most Important Question Of All
Matthew 27:11-26; Luke 23:8-12

During the final hours of Jesus' life, a central question is raised that every person must answer: "What shall I do with Jesus?" Today we look at four different decisions made in response to that question, along with the consequences of each.

Three parts of the question, "What shall I do with Jesus?"

- It is _____.
- It requires a _____.
- It is about _____.

Four Decisions Made:

- Pilate: _____
- Pilate's wife: _____
- Herod: _____

From Pastor Tom

Good morning! I'm glad we have this opportunity to worship the Lord! I'm thankful for the people and the technology that help make it happen! I'm thankful, too, for prayer and for the Spirit of God that makes it happen!

I'm reminded of Jesus' words in Matthew 28:18: "All authority has been given to Me in heaven and on earth." And then He followed that statement with His commission to us: "Go therefore and make disciples of all the nations ..." (Matthew 28:19). Disciple making – in our homes, in the church, in our relationships – continues on, even in a time of pandemic. In some ways, it may be more important now than ever.

Someone has recently written that during this crisis it's important, as spiritual men and women, that we follow the advice of Mordecai to Esther in that great old story. "Who knows but that you've come to the position you're in for such a time as this?" (Esther 4:14). May God, who has sovereignly placed each of us where we are in the current situation, give us the courage to lead well those He has placed in our circle of care and influence.

God bless and strengthen us as we worship today! Tom

Your Promises

Verse 1

When the weight of life begins to fall
On the name of Jesus I will call
For I know my God is in control
And His purpose is unshakeable

Chorus

Doesn't matter what I feel
Doesn't matter what I see
My hope will always be Your promises to me
Now I'm casting out all fear
For Your love has set me free
My hope will always be in Your promises to me

Verse 2

As I walk into the days to come
I will not forget what You have done
For You have supplied my every need
And Your presence is enough for me

Bridge

You will always be more than enough for me
You will always be more than enough for me
Nothing's gonna stop the plans You've made
Nothing's gonna take Your love away
You will always be more than enough for me

O Praise The Name

Verse 1

I cast my mind to Calvary
Where Jesus bled and died for me
I see His wounds His hands His feet
My Saviour on that cursed tree

Verse 2

His body bound and drenched in tears
They laid Him down in Joseph's tomb
The entrance sealed by heavy stone
Messiah still and all alone

Chorus

O praise the Name of the Lord our God
O praise His Name forevermore
For endless days we will sing Your praise
Oh Lord oh Lord our God

Verse 3

Then on the third at break of dawn
The Son of heaven rose again
O trampled death where is your sting
The angels roar for Christ the King

Verse 4

He shall return in robes of white
The blazing sun shall pierce the night
And I will rise among the saints
My gaze transfixed on Jesus' face
