From Pastor Tom

Good morning, I'm glad you're here. ! A well-known American writer and philosopher once said, "It behooves us to be careful about what we worship, for what we are worshiping we are becoming."

Think about that! Whatever is pre-eminent in your life – occupying your time, thoughts, energy, and finances – is the thing, person, or idea you're becoming more and more like! Worry, which is the subject of today's sermon from Philippians 4, may also be an indicator of what it is in life that we really worship. Today, let's allow God's Word to speak to us. He has some amazing, simple antidotes to worry ... and, as we listen, He may also recalibrate our vision for life and worship!

I'm so glad for a Savior who is worthy of our complete devotion and worship! I'm glad that we can worship Him together today!

Tom

Sermon Notes

Antidotes to Worry Philippians 4:6–9

In this letter whose theme is joy, it's necessary and important that Paul write a few sentences on the subject of worry, one of our greatest joy-stealers! In the passage we look at today, we find three principles that can be, for us, antidotes to worry.

1. Right _____ 4:6-7

2. Right _____ 4:8

3. Right _____ 4:9
