From Pastor Tom

Good morning! I'm glad you're here today!

Joy and worry last Sunday. Joy and contentment today from Philippians 4. God desires us to experience His joy, and He takes the time to address many details concerning joy. Contentment is an attitude that contributes to joy. Is contentment having everything we want ... or wanting everything we have? In this final section of his letter to the Philippians, Paul weaves together three strands, or cords, that make up the fabric of contentment in our lives. I hope we'll learn from his experience and, as a result, grow more in love with Him and the life He has given us.

May God be blessed, and may He bless our worship this morning!

Tom

Announcement & Events

Monday Night Bible Study, tomorrow, 7:00 – 7:45 pm.

Our theme is “The Strength You Need,” based on the book of that name by Robert J. Morgan. Join us live on the Crossroads Facebook page, or with a few others at the Reas’ home, 628 W. Arch Street.

Extra Traffic at the Y on Sundays

We learned this past week that a new, free food distribution will be taking place at the Y on Sundays from 11 am. – 1 p.m. starting today through December 31. Please be aware that there will be extra people and cars pulling through the Y parking lot about the time we finish our worship service. Let’s be courteous and bright lights for the Lord as other members of the community share the Y on Sundays. We’ll have an announcement today as to how this will affect next Sunday’s Crossroads Connection fellowship time. Thank you for your understanding and patience! The Y will also be seeking volunteers for help with this program. Let’s be ready to lend a hand when we’re needed!

New Sermon Series

Next Sunday we’ll start a series called “You Asked For It!” These will be sermon subjects, or passages from the Bible you have chosen. Please let Tom know if there is a sermon topic you would like him to preach on in the coming five weeks. Thank you!

Sermon Notes Three Cords of Contentment Philippians 4:10–23

Paul’s final word to his Philippian friends is a message of contentment – how to be satisfied in every circumstance, how to be supplied in every need. This comes from a man in prison, chained to a guard day and night. He writes about three cords of contentment. What are those three cords?
