From Pastor Tom

Good morning! I'm glad you're here today! Worship is a daily response of all that we are to all that God is. I look forward to us offering to God – together – all that we are here at the start of a new week. One of the things that facilitates the expression of our worship is music. Music, by itself, isn't worship; rather, music helps us express our worship. It gives us the courage and the words to say to God (and to each other) what's on our hearts. It offers us a vehicle for expressing a variety of feelings and truths about an infinite God (which is why it's impossible to contain the worship of God in only one style of music). I hope the upcoming hour of worship will be a wholehearted offering of ourselves to a worthy God and Father. –Tom--

Sunday parking at the Y

Thanks for helping with the parking and traffic situation on Sundays. We are being asked to park on the east or north sides of the parking lot so extra space can be created for traffic coming through for the food pick

Pray for upcoming elections.

Let's be in prayer for the spiritual health of our nation and for the upcoming elections. May the Lord provide wise leaders who will seek His will. "In repentance and rest is your salvation; in quietness and confidence will be your strength" (Isaiah 30:15).

Sermon Notes

Sin, Grace, Christ, and Freedom in Romans 6 Romans 6:1-14

The central question of Romans 6 is "Is it okay for Christians to go on sinning?" ... which is an honest, relevant question for each one of us. Paul says, however, that the Christian has died to sin. How did that happen? When did it happen? What does it mean?

I. Two truths for Christians:

- You are _____ 6:1-7
- You are _____ 6:8-11

II. Two commands for Christians:

- Consider _____ 6:11
- Offer _____ 6:12-1

One question for Christians:

- _____ ? 6:14
