Tithes & Offerings

From Pastor Tom: Good morning! I’m glad you’re here today! Allow me to share this message with you from Kevin Kompelien, President of the Evangelical Free Church of America:

Our nation needs healing. Our land needs healing. We need physical healing from COVID-19, relational healing amid racial injustice and political polarization, and spiritual healing from the sin and brokenness of this world. In times like these, it’s so easy to focus on the negative – the pain, the division, the uncertainty – and lose sight of God and his goodness. But that’s not what God tells his people in 2 Chronicles. His solution for his people’s pain is simple but profound: Humble yourself, pray, seek his face, and turn from your wicked ways. “If my people, who are called by my name, will humble themselves and pray and seek my face and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, and I will forgive their sin and will heal their land” (2 Chronicles 7:14).

May the Lord lead us into such a spirit of humility and prayer as we worship him together today! -- Tom--
