From Pastor Tom:

Good morning! I’m glad you’re here!

For those of us who are sports fans (or fans of anything, really), how do we act toward our favorite team? We watch their games; we analyze their plays; we study their statistics (maybe even memorize them!). We wonder how they’ll do; we wear clothing with the team’s colors, or the players’ names; we cheer, raise our arms, laugh, and cry. For some, it may border on worship. In fact, worship of God should resemble this team devotion in some respects. Worship is meant to reach down deep within us, and then lead us to obedient lives that glorify God. Worship is a total adoring response to the one eternal God who has revealed Himself in time. Pray with me that what we experience today will be exactly that!

Announcement & Events

Thanksgiving Meal:

You’re invited to a Thanksgiving meal immediately following the worship service today. Plan to stay for some good food and fellowship!

Time Off: Tom will be on vacation November 23-29. Shane McCasslin will preach in his place Sunday, November 29th.

Nominations: If you have a suggestion for the open Elder position, please let someone on the Nominating Committee know before the end of November

Christmas Eve Service: We're planning a Christmas Eve service. In the past, this has been a good opportunity to invite friends and family. Mark your calendars for December 24 at 6:30

January Congregational Meeting: January 10 is the date for our next Congregational meeting. We'll meet following the worship service for the purposes of electing someone to the Elder Board, and for approving a 2021 budget. If you have input you wish to give for the 2021 budget, please notify one of the elders. Thank you!

Sermon Notes

Who is Jesus Christ ... in the World and in Our Lives?

Colossians 1:15 – 2:17

In this section of Colossians, Paul takes us to the heights in describing the Jesus Christ, the Son of God. It's a thrilling and profound revealing of who He is, both in the world and in our lives. The question we'll try to answer is: "Why is Paul writing this?"

I. Christ and Creation	1:15-17
II. Christ and the Church	1:18-23
III. Christ and Paul	1:24-29
IV. Christ and You	2:1-15
