From Pastor Tom

Good morning! I'm glad you're here!

In the psalms, David exclaimed, "Lord, I love the house where You dwell, the place where Your glory resides!" (Psalm 26:8) When we have to cancel a worship service, as we did last Sunday, we miss it, don't we? As a pastor, it makes me happy to know that you have a longing for these important times in God's "house" ... and that you miss it when it can't happen.

It's during these moments of worship, fellowship, and teaching that the reality of Jesus Christ, alive in the world and in our lives, is renewed! It becomes real to us again as we hear it in the Word, as we sing about it, and as we meet with other people for whom it's true. Truly, the gathering of the Body of Christ in this place is a special, sacred moment.

Will you listen for the Lord's voice with me today? I consider the morning sermon not "Tom's message," but God's message to us from His Word, the Bible. What will the Lord say to you today? What will He say through other people to you? What will He say through you to others? Let's be encouraged by our meeting today! It will propel us forward into the new week!

Worship through Offerings & Tithes

As a part of our worship today, an offering box is available on the back table. The ministry at Crossroads depends on the regular giving of the church family. Giving offers us a way to express our faith that God will care for us just as He cares for the lily and the sparrow.
