The God Who Seeks ... and Finds
Luke 19:1-10

In leading up to Easter, we've been talking about Jesus' friendships with tax collectors and sinners. Today, we read of Jesus in the home of a chief tax collector. What could He possibly hope to accomplish? Let's make ten observations about this familiar story and try to discover the application to our own lives.

1. The Lord was _____!
2. Zaccheus was _____.
3. Zaccheus had _____.
4. Zaccheus made an _____.
5. The Lord _____ and _____.
6. Zaccheus was _____ and _____.
7. The people _____
... at _____
... at _____?
8. Zaccheus made _____ that attested to _____.
9. Zaccheus is _____.
10. The Son of Man _____.

From Pastor Tom

Good morning! What a privilege it is to worship together! I'm so glad you're here!

The vision of Jesus coming down the hills from the little village of Bethany into the city of Jerusalem, surrounded by crowds of people who were laying down tree branches and their very clothing in order to create a carpet before him, has always been a thrilling one for me. The people cried out, "Hosanna!" (which means "Save now!"), ... and "Blessed is the king!" Jesus said if the people had remained silent, the very stones would have cried out.

The entire creation cries out for redemption. The people of our world cry out for rescue, too, in various ways. We who have gathered for worship also need daily cleansing and release from the habits, attitudes, and sins that bind us. Through our worship today, let us cry out to the Lord about our heart needs, expecting Him to hear! Just as He passed through the crowds years ago, He is passing through our midst today!

Worship through Offerings & Tithes

As a part of our worship today, an offering box is available on the back table. The ministry at Crossroads depends on the regular giving of the church family. Giving offers us a way to express our faith that God will care for us just as He cares for the lily and the sparrow.
