Introducing Satan

Genesis 3:1-7, 13-24

May 2, 2021

In the Genesis 3, we come across a character who disrupts God's beautiful creation. He is "the serpent of old who is called the devil and Satan, who deceives the whole world" (Rev 12:9). Why is he here? How can we have victory over him?

From Pastor Tom

Good morning! Here are two prayers of worship that you might make your own as we prepare for today's service:

*O Lord,
Open our eyes to your presence
Open our minds to your grace
Open our lips to your praises
Open our hearts to your love
Open our lives to your healing
And be found among us. Amen.*

*My Father,
I abandon myself into your hands. Do with me as you will. Whatever you may do with me, I thank you. I am prepared for anything, I accept everything, provided your will is fulfilled in me and in all creatures. I ask for nothing more. I place my soul in your hands, I give it to you with all the love of my heart because I love you. And for me it is a necessity of love -- this gift of myself, this placing of myself in your hands in boundless confidence -- because you are my Father.*

May God bless and be pleased with our worship this morning and throughout this new day!

-- Tom

Tickets are $109 if purchased before July 7. Lodging costs will be in addition to the conference cost.

Worship through Offerings & Tithes

As a part of our worship today, an offering box is available on the back table. The ministry at Crossroads depends on the regular giving of the church family. Giving offers us a way to express our faith that God will care for us just as He cares for the lily and the sparrow.
